

COUNTDOWN to SCIENCE alive

Main | 574.282.4646

30 Minute Science Experiments

4:00 p.m., January 22 – February 2
3rd Floor Lobby

Centre Township | 574.251.3700

Explore Our Solar System

Discover amazing facts about the planets with the Michiana Astronomical Society. Registration required.

4:00 p.m., Friday, January 26

Francis | 574.282.4641

Discover Your Five Senses for ages 3 & up

Experience your senses through five hands-on activities. Play Smelly and I-Spy Bingo, taste test Skittles, create a Musicshake, and texture your handprint.

All Day, Monday, January 29

German Township | 574.271.5144

Musical Science

Lyric tenor Michael Snyder, instructor of voice at South Bend's The Music Village, gives a presentation on the science of sound. He uses the human voice and other instruments to explain the relationship between math and musical sound.

6:30 p.m., Tuesday, January 30

Lakeville | 574.784.3446

Newspaper Skyscraper Challenge

Build a tower out of newspaper. Get the scoop on skyscrapers and test your engineering skills in this battle to design the tallest structure.

2:00 p.m., Saturday, January 27

LaSalle | 574.282.4633

JINA-CEE Art 2 Science for ages 8 & up

Scientists from JINA-CEE, Joint Institute for Nuclear Astrophysics - Art 2 Science Camp, invite you to learn problem-solving skills and put together a fun, moving toy. Best of all, you can take home what you make.

3:30 p.m., Thursday, January 25

North Liberty | 574.656.3664

Alexander's Gadgets

Interact with a vocal visualizer and a vortex cannon! A what? Come to the library and see what surprises Alexander has up his sleeve.

6:30 p.m., Thursday, January 25

River Park | 574.282.4635

Marble Maze

Learn about gravity by constructing a marble run and racing through the maze. Materials provided.

3:00 p.m., Tuesday, January 23

Tutt | 574.282.4637

Start Your Engines for ages 7 & up

Scientists from JINA-CEE, Joint Institute for Nuclear Astrophysics - Center for the Evolution of the Elements, teach children how to make motorized cars from household objects. Children learn problem-solving skills while building their own toy to take home! Registration required.

3:30 p.m., Tuesday, January 23

Western | 574.282.4639

Dinosaur Detectives for all ages

Guaranteed fun and a fresh outlook on an age-old curiosity: Dinosaurs. Gina Mason from the Curious Kids Museum in St Joseph, Michigan, brings her giant collection of dinosaur materials for kids to see and touch.

3:30 p.m., Wednesday, January 24